10 ORDER

11 Re: Dkt. No. 13
12

14 On July 29, 2014, the Court issued an order to show cause why this case should not be
15 dismissed for failure to prosecute due to the plaintiff's failure to submit a case management
16 statement and to appear for the case management conference. The plaintiff's response is 17 sufficient. The case will not be dismissed at this time. The plaintiff is warned, however, that any 18 future failure to abide by court deadlines or appear for scheduled appearances may result in 19 sanctions, including dismissal.

20 In his response to the order to show cause, the plaintiff requested additional time to serve
21 the complaint. Under the Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 4(m), a defendant must be served
22 within 120 days after the complaint is filed. The complaint here was filed on April 8, 2014.
23 Therefore, the plaintiff has until August 6, 2014 to serve it. Accordingly, the request for an 24 extension is denied without prejudice. If the plaintiff cannot serve the defendant by August 6, 25 2014 and can demonstrate "good cause" for his failure to do so, he may renew his request, but he 26 must do so before the deadline.

28 IT IS SO ORDERED.
